

Core Values

- We are not an obligation or a destination, but a mission and a movement.
- We believe love conquers all.
- We believe the Holy Spirit is always at work; and God's presence is promised when we meet.
- We want people to feel comfortable to come as they are; but leave inspired and equipped to be more.
- We don't judge people; we love people.
- We believe that Acts 4:29 holds the blueprint of how we operate as a church. Reach and Teach
- Together we can do more.
- All we have, all we are, and all we do is ultimately given to us by God to leverage for His kingdom.
- We believe this world is meant to be navigated from a position of thrive not just survive.
- We want His vision not our decision.
- We can move outward because of what God has done inward.
- We act on the belief that God's house will be a house of prayer.
- We are children of the Light; we do not fear the darkness.
- We are called to the mess.
- We celebrate the wins.
- Radius church makes mistakes, learns from them, moves forward, and allows the people to do the same.
- We believe in getting rid of masks through authentic confession and sharing of burdens.
- We believe that we learn on Sunday and apply on Monday.
- We were designed to be in community together.
- Our faith is personal but not private.

Statements of Faith

The Bible is the inspired Word of God, a revelation from God to men. (2 Tim. 3:15; 1 Pet. 1:23-25; Heb. 4:12) #truth

The one true God has revealed Himself as the eternal "I AM" embodying the ideals of relationship and love by simultaneously existing as Father, Son and Holy Spirit. (Deut. 6:4; Mark 12:29, Is. 43:10, 11; Matt. 28:19) #boom

Humanity was created good and upright. Humanity fell, by choice and our only hope of redemption is Jesus Christ. (Gen. 1:26-31; Gen. 3:17; Romans 5:12-21) #broken

The grace of God freely offers the hope of salvation to all through the work of Jesus by His death and resurrection. By faith, all who accept this free gift are then justified by grace becoming an heir of God and the promise of Eternal life. #gospel

The inward evidence to the believer of his salvation is the direct witness of the Spirit. (Rom 8:16) The outward evidence to all men is a life of holiness. (1 Thes. 4:7; 2 Tim. 1:9) #confidence

Baptism is the outward confession of the inward commitment. The picture of being immersed in water is a parallel to Christ's death, burial and resurrection. #celebrate

Communion is a time we remember what Christ did for us on the cross and look forward to when we can share communion with Him after his return. We follow his example by using the bread and fruit of the vine, which symbolizes His body and blood. #remember

All believers should expect and seek the empowerment of the Holy Spirit. This it comes the ability to live an abundant life of service and love. As a body, we receive the gifts necessary to accomplish our mission. #power

The Church is a gathering of believers moving out with one purpose- to carry out the Great Commission. (Acts 1:8, Matt. 28:19-20) #go

We believe God heals. #supernatural

Everyone has an eternal destination. For those who accepted the free gift of Jesus, their destination is eternal life with God in heaven. For those who rejected God's gift, their destination is eternal death. #destinationtruth #goldenticket
